

SEA's 2017 Annual Workshop

February 27th - 28th, 2017

SEA's 2-day workshop and networking opportunity offers attendees the latest in evaluation news, methods, and innovations through expert-led presentations and panel discussions across various fields, such as health, education, criminal justice, and social services.

The 2017 Workshop will also include the addition of a secondary program track for the first day of the Workshop, which will feature Essential Skills training sessions focused on strengthening the skills of novice and advanced evaluators alike.

SEA is excited to welcome our keynote speaker, Ann K. Emery, to this year's Workshop! Ann writes, trains, and consults on data visualization and analysis, and equips organizations to visualize their data more effectively. Ann also chairs the American Evaluation Association's data visualization interest group and serves as an advisory member of the American Evaluation Association's Potent Presentations Initiative.

As in the past, SEA offers Continuing Education Unit Credits for attendees.

Call for Proposals:

SEA welcomes evaluators to submit proposals for presenting at SEA's 2017 Annual Workshop. The deadline to submit proposals has been extended an additional week to January 20th, 2017. A proposal application can be downloaded from SEA's website or requested via email.
